

That is victory enough. It crushes out the last hope of Democracy in New Hampshire, and will tell largely on the elections to be held in other States. It shows which way the tide runs, and it is great popular heart of the free States will everywhere respond. All hail to the good old Democratic State of New Hampshire!

The Cincinnati Gazette states that arrangements have already been made with the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, the Dayton and Michigan, and the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Companies, to carry passengers to and from Chicago, on the occasion of the National Republican Convention, for the purpose of visiting the States of Indiana and Illinois. Roads will doubtless fall into this arrangement at an early day.

Supreme Court said of the cause was for the Court to be exercising the error of the Circuit Court in establishing the power to decide on the merits of the case. This power the Supreme Court did exercise by sitting aside the judgment of the Circuit Court upon the ground that the Circuit Court did not give any judgment for or against either party. This is all that the Supreme Court did, and all that it had lawful power to do. I consider it a great public misfortune that several of the learned judges of the Supreme Court, who by duty required them to discuss and give opinions upon various questions outside of the case, as the case was actually disposed of by the Court. All such opinions are extra-judicial and of no authority. I am sure that it is a great shame that several of the questions so discussed by the Judges are political questions, and therefore beyond the jurisdiction of the judiciary, and proper only to upon the political morality of men in high places.

"Following is an Administration view of the capture of the Mexican steamers: 'The Mexican steamers were captured on account of a gross violation by them of the laws of nations. They committed an act of aggression by firing the first shot. Instead of recognizing the signal which was given them by a national ship to show their flag, and answer an inquiry as to their character.—According to national law, and our own laws, they were liable to be taken for aggression on the high seas, are subject not only to capture but to condemnation by our Courts.

"It may be said that the capture was made, not upon the high seas, but in the Gulf waters, and it is true that the United States Government, the only one we recognize, will complain of it, as they had pronounced the expedition of Gen. Marin 'piratical.'"

St. Croix A. M., stopping for dinner at the hotel at Gratons Junction, and reaching Cumberland in time for supper, after viewing some two hundred miles of the Road, including its mountain divisions and boldest scenery. From Cumberland the party will start for Washington in sleeping cars, direct to Baltimore or Washington (either of which they will reach for breakfast Saturday morning,) or remain over night and take the special train for either point West in the morning. Baltimore or Washington for early tea.

Those who receive a ticket, and cannot make it convenient to meet at Wheeling on the 13th, can avail themselves of the courtesy extended at any time during the session of the Congress. The circular letters for the excursion will be issued as soon as the arrangements are entirely perfected, which will be in a few days.—Ec.
